

ST JOHN VIANNEY'S PARISH

Trinity Sunday Yr A 7th June 2020

Our Mission: We follow the words of our patron, St John Vianney, who said "He is here". We recognise Christ is in the Word, the Eucharist, and in us, His people with a special reverence for Him in the poor and marginalised. We are called to make Christ present through our prayer and charity. We seek to grow in our spiritual lives and create a community where everyone is welcome; the young and old, together to experience the loving presence of God. We believe He is here amongst us and we joyfully go out to make Him present to all.

TRIUNE NATURE OF GOD.... This weekend we celebrate the solemnity of the Holy Trinity, the feast of the Triune God manifested in three persons, the Father, Son and the Spirit. In our practice of Christian Life, the Trinity is remembered often in prayer and throughout the daily routine by every Christian. Each time we make the sign of the cross, as we do at the beginning of Mass, we say: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." Even though we remember the Trinity several times a day, as we invoke the divine presence before we begin any activity; it is difficult to comprehend the full meaning because the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit we acknowledge constitute a great Mystery. Our God is a Trinity, a God of love and forgiveness.

The teaching about the Trinity is one of the most fundamental doctrines in our Christian faith yet not explicitly explained in the Bible. We have only limited Biblical passages to support that in the fullness of God, there are three distinct persons with specific attributes. Jesus in His teaching calls God Abba, Father and He teaches the disciples also to address Him in the same way. Jesus also speaks of the Spirit as His advocate and His oneness with Him.

In our understanding of the Trinity, specific roles however are attributed to them. Namely, Father as the Creator, Son as the Redeemer and the Holy Spirit as the Sanctifier. The feast of the Most Holy Trinity is a mystery that one does not fully understand. Our faith tells us that these three persons are indeed distinct and yet united. If in our practice of faith there are no other words remembered than the names of Father, Son and the Spirit then this Trinity is all that is needed for us to fully live our Christian life.

WOULD YOU LIKE TO ATTEND MASS? We invite you to register your interest in attending Mass on either Wednesday 9.30 am at Manly or Saturday vigil Mass at Manly 5.00 pm and Sunday 9.30 am by emailing the parish office at manly@bne.catholic.net.au or Phoning 07 3131 2610. Please leave your best contact details and parish secretary will contact you to confirm Mass attendance and requirements under the COVID-19 Safe Plan. At this stage we are able to have 20 people including the celebrant under the current restrictions.

This will require: A process of registration for Mass attendance; the collection of names and contact details to allow authorities to trace attendees should the need arise; observing physical distancing whilst inside our churches. We appreciate your co-operation and understanding in the implementation of these procedures.

Blessings,

Fr. Dantus Thottathil.

First Reading: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

The Lord God, ruler of all, merciful and loving.

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm Daniel 3:52-56

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blest your glorious holy name.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel: John 3:16-18

God sent his Son to save the world through him.

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Prayers of the Faithful:

For the Christian churches, that they be one in the unifying love of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, let us pray to the Lord:

Lord, hear our prayer.

For civil authorities, that they intensify their efforts to establish peace and justice throughout the world, let us pray to the Lord: Lord, hear our prayer.

That Christians whose faith is tested by the coronavirus may receive God's grace to sustain them, Let us pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For our friends who are sick, in hospitals or nursing homes that the Spirit may help them each day, Let us pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For those who have died, that they share the glory of the Triune God, let us pray to the Lord: Lord hear our prayer.
