FOR THE CHILDREN

LOVE ON ANOTHER

Jesus and his disciples gathered to celebrate the Jewish Passover and share their last supper together. When they had finished, Jesus explained that soon he would be leaving them.

LET US PRAY

Lord Jesus, you showed us how we should love and care for one another.

May our love be a sign to bring others to know you too.

DATE CLAIMERS:

First Holy Communion Masses: 18 and 19 June 2022

FIRST READING- Acts 14:21-27

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 99:1-3, 5

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures. R.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord,
and your friends shall repeat their blessing.
They shall speak of the glory of your reign
and declare your might, O God,
to make known to men your mighty deeds
and the glorious splendour of your reign. R.

Yours is an everlasting kingdom;
your rule lasts from age to age. R.

SECOND READING Revelation 21:1-5

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.'

Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new!'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:

love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL: John 13:31-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

When Judas had gone Jesus said:

'Now has the Son of Man been glorified,
and in him God has been glorified.

If God has been glorified in him,

God will in turn glorify him in himself,
and will glorify him very soon.

My little children,

I shall not be with you much longer.

I give you a new commandment:

love one another;

just as I have loved you,

you also must love one another.

By this love you have for one another,

everyone will know that you are my disciples!'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

ALTAR SERVERS ARE REALLY IMPORTANT!

Active participation in the celebration of the Eucharist provides the spiritual nourishment we require to continue the mission of Jesus. If you are preparing for or have already received your first Holy Communion, we invite you to actively participate in the Eucharist by joining our Team of Altar Servers. Full training is provided to all Altar Servers so come along, meet new people and have fun while actively participating and serving both the priest and our parish community. For more information or to express your interest in joining our next Altar Server Training Course please add your name and contact details to the Sign-Up Sheet in the Church foyer.

PENTECOST SUNDAY 5 JUNE 2022 – MULTICULTURAL MASS

On Pentecost Sunday the Apostles were transformed and empowered by the Holy Spirit, and speaking in many different languages, they took their first steps in professing the wonderful works that God had done through Christ.

We speak many languages in our parish community at St John Vianney's and to celebrate this multiculturalism we invite parishioners to attend Mass dressed in the national costume of the ancestry they identify with. We would also like to share a multicultural morning tea and ask that you to bring a plate with a delicacy from the cuisine of your ancestors. Please add your name, ancestral background and share plate you intend bringing, to the Sign-up Sheet in the Church foyer.

Finally, we would like to display the flags of the many countries represented in our parish community. If you have a flag, either small or large, and are happy to loan it to us for the day please indicate on the Sign-up Sheet in the Church foyer.

DONATIONS FOR PLANTS FOR FRONT GARDEN

The ground has been prepared and is ready for the new roses. If you would like to assist with the purchase of the new roses please put your donation in an envelope marked "Roses" and place it in the collection that is taken up during Mass. Your generosity is much appreciated.
