

FIRST READING EXODUS 34:4-6, 8-9
A reading from the book of Exodus

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The word of the Lord.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: DANIEL 3:52-56
R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blest your glorious holy name.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.
R. Glory and praise for ever!

SECOND READING: 2 CORINTHIANS 13:11-13
A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

The word of the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION: REVELATION 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: JOHN 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to Nicodemus,
'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

NEXT SUNDAY'S READINGS

ST VINCENT DE PAUL WINTER APPEAL
17TH & 18TH JUNE

The annual Winter Appeal for St John Vianney's SVdP Manly Conference will be held at all masses in the Parish on Sat 17th and Sun 18th June.

This year the local Manly Conference has seen a 40% jump in requests for assistance (199 to 284), as economic realities affect those who can least afford increases in rent, food and electricity costs. Over this period, help provided by the Conference has increased by 30% ($23,500 to $30,600).

We need your help to assist those doing it tough in our community and we look forward to your support of the Winter Appeal.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT
We follow the words of our patron, St John Vianney, who said "He is here". We recognise Christ is in the Word, the Eucharist, and in us His people, with a special reverence for Him in the poor and marginalised. We are called to make Christ present through our prayer and charity. We seek to grow in our spiritual lives and create a community where everyone is welcome; the young and the old, together to experience the loving presence of God. We believe He is here amongst us and we joyfully go out to make Him present to all.

We acknowledge and pay respect to Traditional Custodians - the Quandamooka and Jagera Peoples on whose land we walk, live and worship.

03 / 04 JUNE 2023
THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." (John 3: 16-18)

Good parent, uncool parent, beloved parent

A mum and dad welcome their child into the world. For the newborn, Mum and Dad are the source of all life and love, complete and total, unconditional and unlimited. Mum and Dad are powerful figures of order and stability to the child.

But as the child begins to struggle to stand up, to walk and run on his or her own, to form words and express ideas, Mum and Dad become teachers and guides and the child learns what he or she should and should not do. By the time the child reaches his or her teens, the relationship with Mum and Dad becomes strained, as the son or daughter enters adulthood and begins to rebel against the limits set by Mum and Dad.

And then the child comes into his or her own as an adult and takes responsibility for his or her own life. The adult son or daughter becomes a Mum and Dad and, with a child of their own, they realise all that their Mum and Dad did for them, and why. And they seek to provide the same for their newborn.

When Mum or Dad dies, the son or daughter will hear someone say to them, "Your Dad would be very proud of you" or "That's exactly what your Mum would do."

And the child-now-adult-now parent realises that all they have and are, gifts from their parents.

The love that we experience growing up mirrors the unique love of God, who is Father, Son and Spirit. In the image of the Trinity, we realize the many ways we experience that love in our lives: God the Father who breathes life into us as well as the wonder of all creation; God the Son who teaches us how to live that life meaningfully and purposefully; God the Spirit, the wisdom of God that inspires us, with gratitude and humility, to be the means of the love that binds us as brothers and sisters to one another.

SJV FAMILY MASS

SUNDAY 18TH JUNE

Pre-Primary to Year 2 children from SJV School will be leading us in the Liturgy of the Word and the Offertory Procession. We welcome the children and their families to our Liturgical Celebration.

As part of our outreach programme, SJV Parish makes a BIG difference for people seeking asylum in Brisbane by providing on-going support to the Romero Centre through the donation of:

- Go Cards, Coles / Woolworths gift cards ($20 or $25)
- Multi shop gift cards (small denominations) or Cash donations.

Place cards or cash in the weekend collection, in a sealed envelope marked The Romero Centre. If you donate via their website a tax invoice will be issued.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit

God shares himself with us through the three persons of the Trinity. We share the love of God the Father, the goodness of Jesus the Son, and the friendship of the Holy Spirit.

LET US PRAY

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.
